

2024 Back-to-School Tax Holiday Information

Make sure to contact your customers to let them know of this limited-time benefit! There are 13 states and Puerto Rico with a sales tax holiday for school supplies in the months of July or August (the dates are included in the table below by state). There are four states (GA, LA, NJ, WI) that have suspended the tax holiday for this year. Basically, this is a school supply holiday and each state has specific rules they consider to be school supplies—this may be by description or by price. The table below shows the items included per state statute definitions. The basic state definition is, "any items normally used by students in a standard classroom for educational purposes" are included in this sales tax holiday. The list of items below will be either state tax-free or a reduced tax rate during the holiday period. Please note that you must place your order with Stampin' Up!® during the tax holiday period in order to receive these items tax-free (which is midnight (local time) on the first day to midnight (local time) on the last day of the tax holiday). Also, keep in mind that this is a state sales tax holiday and may not apply to additional county, city, and special jurisdiction taxes.
